NBA Legend Al-Farouq Aminu to Host AGWF 10th Anniversary Nigeria Basketball Combine in Ibadan and Abuja

IBADAN, NIGERIA — The Aminu Good Works Foundation (AGWF), founded by NBA legend Al-Farouq Aminu, proudly announces its 2026 Nigeria Basketball Combine & 10th Anniversary Celebration, taking place in Ibadan from August 7–9, 2026, at the Lekan Salami Stadium, Adamasingba, and in Abuja from August 13–16, 2026, at the MO Arena.

This milestone year celebrates ten years of transforming lives through basketball, education, leadership, and mentorship, creating opportunities for young Nigerians both on and off the court.

Approximately 150 student-athletes will participate in the Ibadan Combine, including 100 boys and 50 girls selected from across the region. The Abuja event will feature an Elite Invitational Combine consisting of 30 of Nigeria's top young male basketball prospects (ages 14–18) selected from Abuja and neighboring states.

More than a basketball event, the AGWF Combine is designed to develop the complete student-athlete through:

- Elite basketball instruction and skill development
- Athletic testing and player evaluation
- Leadership development
- Character education
- Mentorship from experienced coaches and professionals
- Life skills and personal development sessions

The Foundation remains committed to providing young people with opportunities that extend beyond basketball by emphasizing education, discipline, leadership, integrity, and service.
